

MARTIN
van KOOLBERGEN
AIA, IALD, LC, LEED AP
Partner

Martin van Koolbergen's architectural background and his strong understanding of the technical aspects of lighting are proven in his ability and talent to create both highly designed and gracefully inconspicuous lighting designs. Martin's diversified skills encourage the design and implementation of elegant and compelling spaces. He is a firm believer that lighting enhances the architecture.

Martin's principles within the office have inspired and motivated other lighting designers who can relate to his philosophies on design, energy conservation and technology. His knowledge of the energy codes and environmental conditions has put him in the forefront of residential lighting design. Martin's published works have appeared in Interior Design, Architectural Record, Architectural Digest, Environmental Design and Construction, California Homes, Robb Report, and Shelter Magazine.
